

I strongly support the existing "no-call list" and related laws enforced in New Jersey. They add an essential protection to consumers and should not be tempered with by the Federal Government.